Experience

Latin School of Chicago
August 2015 - Current

Computer Science Teacher

From binary to building blogs, teaching students how they can empower themselves by understanding how the technology around them works. All while building inclusive, collaborative and engaging curriculum for 3 courses.

Skillcrush
October 2015 - Current

ROR Instructor

Providing support and challenging students in all corners of the world to complete a 3 month, online intensive ruby on rails course. At any given time, I handle around 100 active students with various backgrounds.

Flatiron School
June 2015 - Aug 2015

Precollege Software Engineering Instructor

Lead the next generation of creators and problem solvers in two-week intensive bootcamps, focusing on software engineering and design. I had groups of 10 to 20 teenaged students thinking critically, collaborating and learning professional development tools.
